

Every year at the end of the 1st semester we get a chance to attend the MIOC Christmas Party where students from both the national and IB program show their talent and hard work. Through songs and creative performances they help us get into the Christmas spirit. This year the show included a school choir, several solo acts, and two bands, one from the IB and the other from the national program, which won the contest “Glazbom reci stop maltretiranju”, at Antena Zagreb. They ended the Christmas party with a fantastic cover of a famous Croatian song, “Ako su to samo bile laži”, which got the entire crowd on their feet and was the perfect way to wrap up the final week before the holidays. We would like to thank all of our students for participating in the show - your dedication and passion towards music is truly what makes this annual event so special for our school.
