

FRENCH B and Service learning

CAS experiences that could be derived from FRENCH B _Language B group include:

- developing pen-pal networks
- providing language lessons to those in need
- developing language guides using technology
- creative writing in the language being studied
- collaborating with charities and organizations to design posters for their causes and special events
- writing articles on the culture of the language studied
- producing materials (flash cards, brochures, posters, presentation using digital apps) explaining Subject-specific Vocabulary e.g. human rights, migration, immigration...)
- producing materials explaining CAS in the language being studied
- raising awareness of the culture of the language being studied through articles, a website or other forms of communication
- attending and performing : (creating artworks to donate to hospitals, aged-care facilities or refugee centres; creating community projects such as performances or photo exhibits for hospitals, aged-care facilities or refugee centres; creating performances for local theatre, community and cultural festivals)
- creating a performance for local schools with an educational message, for example, how to better protect the environment
- creating posters for not-for-profit organizations with an educational message
- creating a social blog with a public purpose for other students